Dear Shareholder:

US Economic and Equity Market Overview

The first half of fiscal 2017 (February 28, 2017 to August 31, 2017) was positive for equities. The S&P 500 Index (the “S&P 500”) continued the post-election bounce and was up 5.65% for the six-month period. Performance across the S&P 500’s ten sectors was disparate with Technology up more than 15% and Energy down almost 10% in the six-month period. Inflation remained restrained near 1% and the dollar weakened by more than 8%. Meanwhile, both Treasuries and corporate bonds generated positive returns, contributing to the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index’s increase of 2.7%. In light of the dollar weakness, the strongest performing asset classes were MSCI Emerging Markets Index (+18.0%) and MSCI EAFE Index (+12.1%).

U.S. economic growth in Q2-2017 reached its highest level in two years at +0.6% (vs. +0.3% the previous quarter), underpinned by a rebound in consumer spending and a stronger labor market. The recovery is expected to continue through Q3-2017, despite being modestly impacted by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma, underlining the scenario of an ongoing tightening of monetary policy on a gradual basis.

Bright Rock Fund Overviews

Quality Large Cap Fund:

For the six-month period ended August 31, 2017, the Institutional Class shares of the fund returned 1.44%, behind the S&P 500 which returned 5.65% over the same six-month period. Our bias towards high quality stocks and our equal sector weighted approach were significant drivers of underperformance. The S&P 500 Quality Index returned 3.80% and the S&P 500 Equal Weighted Sectors Index returned 3.42%; both of which were significantly below the S&P 500. Nine of the ten sectors in the S&P 500 produced positive returns over the past six months, with only Energy (-9.93%) and Telecom (-5.22%) experiencing negative returns. The Technology (+15.30%), Health Care (+9.47%), Utilities (+7.91%) & Materials (+6.20%) sectors all outperformed the overall market. Stock selection was also a contributor to the fund’s underperformance over the past six months. Notable negative contributors included Stericycle (-13.47%), C.H. Robinson (-10.49%), and General Mills (-10.23%), while notable outperformers for the period included Facebook (+25.75%), MasterCard (+21.13%), and Cognizant (+19.93%).

Mid Cap Growth Fund:

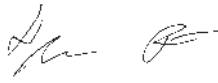

For the six-month period ended August 31, 2017, the Institutional Class shares of the fund returned 2.16%, behind the Russell Mid Cap Growth Total Return Index which returned 7.29% over the same six month period. Our equal sector weighted approach added significant value for the six month period, which was offset by underperformance of high quality stocks and underwhelming stock selection. The Russell Mid Cap Growth Equal Sector Index returned 7.28% for the period which was roughly in-line with the benchmark. Unfortunately, there were several stocks that had poor results over those six months which eroded any benefit from equal weighting the sectors. There were four stocks in the portfolio that lost more than 20% from February 2017 to August 31, 2017. They include Mednax, MSC Industrial, L Brands, and TechnipFMC. Those poor performers were offset by Monster Beverages, Edwards Lifesciences, Varian Medical, and Rollins which were all up more than 20% for the six-month period ended August 31, 2017.

Sincerely,

David B. Smith, CFA

Past performance is not a guarantee of future results.

The S&P 500 is an index of 500 stocks chosen by factors such as market size, liquidity and industry grouping. The MSCI EAFE Index is an equity index which captures large and mid cap representation across Developed Markets countries around the world, excluding the US and Canada. The MSCI Emerging Markets Index captures large and mid cap representation across 24 Emerging Markets (EM) countries. The Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is an index of the U.S. investment grade fixed-rate bond market, including both government and corporate bonds. The S&P 500[®] Quality Index is designed to track high quality stocks in the S&P 500 by quality score, which is calculated based on return on equity, accruals ratio and financial leverage ratio. The S&P 500 Equal Weighted Sectors Index is calculated by equal weighting the returns of the following 10 S&P 500 Sector Indices (Consumer Discretionary, Consumer Staples, Energy, Financials, Health Care, Industrials, Information Technology, Materials, Telecommunications, & Utilities). The Russell Mid Cap Growth Total Return Index is an index composed of mid-capitalization US equities that exhibit growth characteristics. The Russell Mid Cap Growth Equal Sector Index is derived by equal weighting the Sector Returns of the Russell Mid Cap Growth Total Return Index.

Opinions expressed are those of Bright Rock Capital Management, LLC and are subject to change, are not guaranteed and should not be considered investment advice.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Investments in mid cap companies can involve additional risks such as limited liquidity and greater volatility. Investments in foreign securities can exhibit greater volatility. Additional risks include political, economic, and currency risks as well as differences in accounting methods. These risks can be greater for investments in emerging markets. The Funds will bear their share of the fees and expenses of investments in underlying funds or exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”). Shareholders will pay higher expenses than would be the case if making direct investments in underlying funds or ETFs. Because the Funds invest in ETFs, they are subject to additional risks that do not apply to conventional mutual funds, including the risks that the market price of an ETF’s shares may trade at a discount to its net asset value (“NAV”), an active secondary trading market may not develop or be maintained, or trading may be halted by the exchange on which they trade, which may impact a Fund’s ability to sell ETF shares. The Funds may use options and futures contracts which have the risks of unlimited losses of the underlying holdings due to unanticipated market movements and failure to correctly predict the direction of the securities prices, interest rates and currency exchange rates. This investment may not be suitable for all investors. The Funds may engage in short sales, which could result in a Fund’s investment performance suffering if it is required to close out a short position earlier than it had intended. The prices of growth stocks may be more sensitive to changes in current or expected earnings than the prices of other stocks.

Fund holdings and sector allocations are subject to change and should not be considered a recommendation to buy or sell any security. For a complete list of Fund holdings, please refer to the Schedules of Investments included in this report.

Must be preceded or accompanied by a prospectus.

Bright Rock Funds Expense Examples (Unaudited)

As a shareholder of the Funds, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution and service (12b-1) fees (Investor Class only) and other Fund expenses. This Example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Funds, and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period (March 1, 2017 – August 31, 2017).

Actual Expenses

The first line of each of the following tables provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. Although the Funds charge no sales load, you will be assessed fees for outgoing wire transfers, returned checks and stop payment orders at prevailing rates charged by U.S. Bancorp Fund Services, LLC, the Funds' transfer agent. If you request that a redemption be made by wire transfer, currently a $15.00 fee is charged by the Funds' transfer agent. IRA accounts will be charged a $15.00 annual maintenance fee. To the extent the Funds invest in shares of ETFs or other investment companies as part of their investment strategies, you will indirectly bear your proportionate share of any fees and expenses charged by the underlying funds in which the Funds invest in addition to the expenses of the Funds. Actual expenses of the underlying funds are expected to vary among the various underlying funds. These expenses are not included in the Example. The Example includes, but is not limited to, management fees, fund administration and accounting, custody and transfer agent fees. You may use the information in the first line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of each of the following tables provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Funds' actual expense ratios and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Funds' actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Funds and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds. Please note that the expenses shown in the tables are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees or exchange fees. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

Bright Rock Funds

Performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance of the Fund may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month end may be obtained by calling 1-866-273-7223.

Short-term performance, in particular, is not a good indication of the Fund's future performance, and an investment should not be made solely on returns.

Investment performance reflects fee waivers in effect. In the absence of such waivers, total return would be reduced.

The returns shown in the table and graphs assume reinvestment of Fund distributions and do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares. The graphs illustrate performance of a hypothetical investment made in the Fund and a broad-based securities index on May 26, 2010 and January 17, 2012, the inception dates of the Institutional and Investor Classes, respectively. The graphs do not reflect any future performance.

The Russell Midcap Growth Total Return Index measures the performance of the mid-cap growth segment of the U.S. equity universe. One cannot invest directly in an index.

Bright Rock Funds
Notes to Financial Statements
August 31, 2017 (Unaudited)

(1) Organization

Trust for Professional Managers (the “Trust”) was organized as a Delaware statutory trust under a Declaration of Trust dated May 29, 2001. The Trust is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), as an open-end management investment company. The Bright Rock Funds (the “Funds”) are comprised of the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund and the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund, each representing a distinct series with its own investment objective and policies within the Trust. The investment objective of both Funds is long-term capital appreciation. The Trust may issue an unlimited number of shares of beneficial interest at $0.001 par value. The assets of the Funds are segregated, and a shareholder’s interest is limited to the Fund in which shares are held. Each Fund has two share classes: Institutional Class and Investor Class shares. Each Fund is a series of an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standard Codification Topic 946 “Financial Services—Investment Companies”. The Institutional Class shares of each Fund commenced operations on May 26, 2010. The Investor Class shares of each Fund commenced operations on January 17, 2012. Costs incurred by the Funds in connection with the organization, registration and the initial public offering of shares were paid by Bright Rock Capital Management, LLC (the “Adviser”), the Funds’ investment adviser.

(2) Significant Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Funds in the preparation of the financial statements. These policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

(a) Investment Valuation

Each security owned by the Funds that is listed on a securities exchange is valued at its last sale price on that exchange on the date as of which assets are valued. Debt securities are valued at the mean between the bid and ask prices provided by an approved independent pricing service. Forward currency contracts are valued at the mean between the bid and asked prices by an approved pricing service. Commodities futures contracts and options thereon traded on a commodities exchange or board of trade are valued at the last sale price at the close of trading. Rights and warrants are valued at the last sale price at the close of the exchange on which the security is primarily traded.

If the security is listed on more than one exchange, the Funds will use the price of the exchange that the Funds generally consider to be the principal exchange on which the security is traded. Portfolio securities listed on the NASDAQ Stock

August 31, 2017 (Unaudited)

Market, Inc. (“NASDAQ”) will be valued at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price, which may not necessarily represent the last sale price. If there has been no sale on such exchange or on NASDAQ on such day, the security is valued at the mean between the most recent bid and asked prices on such day or the security shall be valued at the latest sales price on the “composite market” for the day such security is being valued. The composite market is defined as a consolidation of the trade information provided by national securities and foreign exchanges and over-the-counter markets as published by a pricing service.

If market quotations are not readily available, a security or other asset will be valued at its fair value as determined under fair value pricing procedures approved by the Board of Trustees. These fair value pricing procedures will also be used to price a security when corporate events, events in the securities market and/or world events cause the Adviser to believe that a security’s last sale price may not reflect its actual fair market value. The intended effect of using fair value pricing procedures is to ensure that the Funds are accurately priced. The Board of Trustees will regularly evaluate whether the Funds’ fair value pricing procedures continue to be appropriate in light of the specific circumstances of the Funds and the quality of prices obtained through the application of such procedures by the Trust’s valuation committee.

Foreign securities will be priced in their local currencies as of the close of their primary exchange or market or as of the time each Fund calculates its net asset value (“NAV”), whichever is earlier. Foreign securities, currencies and other assets denominated in foreign currencies are then translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate of such currencies against the U.S. dollar, as provided by an approved pricing service or reporting agency. All assets denominated in foreign currencies will be converted into U.S. dollars using the applicable currency exchange rates as of the close of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”), generally 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

Debt securities, including short-term debt instruments having a maturity of 60 days or less, are valued at the mean in accordance with prices supplied by an approved pricing service. Pricing services may use various valuation methodologies such as the mean between the bid and the asked prices, matrix pricing and other analytical pricing models as well as market transactions and dealer quotations. If a price is not available from a pricing service, the most recent quotation obtained from one or more broker-dealers known to follow the issue will be obtained. Quotations will be valued at the mean between the bid and the offer. Any discount or premium is accreted or amortized using the constant yield 2 method until maturity.

Money market funds, demand notes and repurchase agreements are valued at cost. If cost does not represent current market value the securities will be priced at fair value.

Redeemable securities issued by open-end, registered investment companies are valued at the NAVs of such companies for purchase and/or redemption orders placed on that day. All exchange-traded funds are valued at the last reported sale price on the exchange on which the security is principally traded.

FASB Accounting Standards Codification, “Fair Value Measurement” Topic 820 (“ASC 820”), establishes an authoritative definition of fair value and sets out a hierarchy for measuring fair value. ASC 820 requires an entity to evaluate certain factors to determine whether there has been a significant decrease in volume and level of activity for the security such that recent transactions and quoted prices may not be determinative of fair value and further analysis and adjustment may be necessary to estimate fair value. ASC 820 also requires enhanced disclosure regarding the inputs and valuation techniques used to measure fair value in those instances as well as expanded disclosure of valuation levels for major security types. These inputs are summarized in the three broad levels listed below:

Level 1—Quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2—Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.).

Level 3—Significant unobservable inputs (including the Funds’ own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Funds’ investments carried at fair value as of August 31, 2017:

During the period ended August 31, 2017, there were no transfers between levels for the Funds. It is the Funds' policy to record transfers between levels at the end of the periods. The Funds did not hold any Level 3 securities during the year. The Funds did not hold financial derivative instruments during the year presented.

(b) Federal Income Taxes

The Funds comply with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code necessary to qualify as a regulated investment company and make the requisite distributions of income and capital gains to their shareholders sufficient to relieve them from all or substantially all federal income taxes. Therefore, no federal income tax provision has been provided.

(c) Distributions to Shareholders

The Funds will distribute any net investment income and any net realized long- or short-term capital gains at least annually. Distributions from net realized gains for book purposes may include short-term capital gains. All short-term capital gains are included in ordinary income for tax purposes. Distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The Funds may also pay a special distribution at the end of the calendar year to comply with federal tax requirements.

The amount of the dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized gains are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. These differences are either temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the composition of net assets based on their federal tax-basis treatment.

(d) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(e) Share Valuation

The NAV per share of each Fund is calculated by dividing the sum of the value of the securities held by each Fund, plus cash or other assets, minus all liabilities (including estimated accrued expenses) by the total number of shares outstanding for each Fund, rounded to the nearest cent. The Funds' shares will not be priced on the days on which the NYSE is closed for trading. The offering and redemption price per share for each Fund is equal to the Fund's NAV per share.

(f) Allocation of Income, Expenses and Gains/Losses

Income, expenses (other than those deemed attributable to a specific share class), and gains and losses of the Funds are allocated daily to each class of shares based upon the ratio of net assets represented by each class as a percentage of the net assets of each Fund. Expenses deemed directly attributable to a class of shares are recorded by the specific class. Most Fund expenses are allocated by class based on relative net assets. Distribution (12b-1) fees are expensed at 0.25% of average daily net assets of the Investor Class shares of each Fund. Expenses associated with a specific fund in the Trust are charged to that fund. Common Trust expenses are typically allocated evenly between the funds of the Trust, or by other equitable means.

(g) Other

Investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. The Funds determine the gain or loss from investment transactions using the best tax relief order.

Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date and interest income is recognized on an accrual basis.

At February 28, 2017, the fiscal years 2014 through 2017 remained open to examination in the Funds' major tax jurisdictions.

(4) Investment Adviser

The Trust has entered into an Investment Advisory Agreement (the "Agreement") with the Adviser to furnish investment advisory services to the Funds. Under the terms of the Agreement, the Trust, on behalf of the Mid Cap Growth Fund, compensates the Adviser for its management services at the annual rate of 0.75% of the Fund's average daily net assets. The Trust, on behalf of the Quality Large Cap Fund, compensates the Adviser for its management services at the annual rate of 0.65% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

The Adviser has contractually agreed to waive its management fee and/or reimburse the Funds' other expenses at least through June 28, 2018, at the discretion of the Adviser and the Board of Trustees, to the extent necessary to ensure that the Funds' total operating expenses (exclusive of front-end or contingent deferred sales loads, Rule 12b-1 fees, shareholder servicing plan fees, taxes, leverage, interest, broker commissions, expenses incurred in connection with any merger or reorganization, dividends or interest on short positions, acquired fund fees and expenses and extraordinary expenses such as litigation) do not exceed 1.25% of each Fund's average daily net assets (the "Expense Limitation Cap"). Any such waiver or reimbursement is subject to later adjustment to allow the Adviser to recoup amounts waived or reimbursed within three years from the date such amount was waived or reimbursed, subject to the operating expense limitation agreement, if such reimbursements will not cause a Fund to exceed the lesser of: (1) the expense limitation in place at the time of the waiver; or (2) the expense limitation in place at the time of the recoupment. The Funds did not have any previously waived expenses subject to potential recoupment at period end.

(5) Distribution Plan

The Trust has adopted a plan pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act (the "12b-1 Plan"), on behalf of the Funds, which authorizes them to pay Quasar Distributors, LLC (the "Distributor") a distribution (12b-1) fee of 0.25% of each Fund's Investor Class shares' average daily net assets for services to prospective Fund shareholders and distribution of Fund shares. During the period ended August 31, 2017, the Mid Cap Growth Fund and the Quality Large Cap Fund incurred expenses of $132 and $2,586 pursuant to the 12b-1 Plan, respectively.

Bright Rock Funds
Basis for Trustees' Approval of Investment Advisory Agreement
(Unaudited)

The Board of Trustees (the “Trustees”) of Trust for Professional Managers (the “Trust”) met in person on August 18, 2017 to consider the renewal of the Investment Advisory Agreement (the “Agreement”) between the Trust, on behalf of the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund (the “Mid Cap Growth Fund”) and the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund (the “Quality Large Cap Fund”) (each, a “Fund,” and together, the “Funds”), each a series of the Trust, and Bright Rock Capital Management, LLC, the Funds’ investment adviser (the “Adviser”). The Trustees also met at a prior meeting held on June 14, 2017 (the “June 14, 2017 meeting”) to review materials related to the renewal of the Agreement. Prior to these meetings, the Trustees requested and received materials to assist them in considering the renewal of the Agreement. The materials provided contained information with respect to the factors enumerated below, including a copy of the Agreement, a memorandum prepared by the Trust’s outside legal counsel discussing in detail the Trustees’ fiduciary obligations and the factors they should assess in considering the renewal of the Agreement, detailed comparative information relating to the Funds’ performance, as well as the management fees and total annual fund operating expenses of the Funds, due diligence materials relating to the Adviser (including a due diligence questionnaire completed on behalf of the Funds by the Adviser, the Adviser’s Form ADV, select financial statements of the Adviser, bibliographic information of the Adviser’s key management and compliance personnel, comparative fee information for the Funds and other separately-managed accounts and a summary detailing key provisions of the Adviser’s written compliance program, including its code of ethics) and other pertinent information. The Trustees also received information periodically throughout the year that was relevant to the Agreement renewal process, including performance, management fee and other expense information. Based on their evaluation of the information provided by the Adviser, in conjunction with the Funds’ other service providers, the Trustees, by a unanimous vote (including a separate vote of the Trustees who are not “interested persons,” as that term is defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Independent Trustees”)), approved the continuation of the Agreement for an additional one-year term ending August 31, 2018.

DISCUSSION OF FACTORS CONSIDERED

In considering the renewal of the Agreement and reaching their conclusions, the Trustees reviewed and analyzed various factors that they determined were relevant, including the factors enumerated below.

1. NATURE, EXTENT AND QUALITY OF SERVICES PROVIDED TO THE FUNDS

The Trustees considered the nature, extent and quality of services provided by the Adviser to the Funds and the amount of time devoted to the Funds’ operations by the Adviser’s staff. The Trustees considered the Adviser’s specific responsibilities in all aspects of day-to-day management of the Funds, including the investment strategies implemented by the Adviser, as well as the qualifications, experience and responsibilities of Douglas S. Butler and David B. Smith, the Funds' portfolio managers, and other key personnel at the Adviser involved in the day-to-day activities of the Funds. The Trustees reviewed information provided by the Adviser in a due diligence summary, including the structure of the Adviser's compliance program, and discussed the Adviser's marketing activity and its continuing commitment to the Funds. The Trustees noted that during the course of the prior year they had met with representatives of the Adviser in person to discuss the Funds' performance and outlook, along with the marketing and compliance efforts made by the Adviser. The Trustees also noted any services that extended beyond portfolio management, and they considered the brokerage practices of the Adviser. The Trustees discussed in detail the Adviser's handling of compliance matters, including the reports of the Trust's chief compliance officer to the Trustees on the effectiveness of the Adviser's compliance program. The Trustees concluded that the Adviser had sufficient quality and depth of personnel, resources, investment methods and compliance policies and procedures essential to performing its duties under the Advisory Agreement and that the nature, overall quality and extent of the management services provided to the Funds, as well as the Adviser's compliance program, were satisfactory and reliable.

2. INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE OF THE FUNDS AND THE ADVISER

The Trustees discussed the performance of the Institutional Class shares of the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund and the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund for the year-to-date, one-year, three-year and five-year periods ended April 30, 2017. In assessing the quality of the portfolio management services delivered by the Adviser, the Trustees also compared the short-term and longer-term performance of the Funds on both an absolute basis and in comparison to a benchmark index (the Russell Mid Cap Growth Total Return Index for the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund and the S&P 500 Total Return Index for the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund) and in comparison to a peer group of similar funds as constructed by data presented by Morningstar Direct (a peer group of U.S. open-end mid-cap growth funds for the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund and a peer group of U.S. open-end large blend funds for the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund) (each a "Morningstar Peer Group"). The Trustees also reviewed information on the historical performance of composites of other separately-managed accounts of the Adviser's parent company that were similar to each Fund in terms of investment strategy.

The Trustees noted the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund's performance for the three-year period ended April 30, 2017 was above the Morningstar Peer Group median. The Trustees also noted that the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund's performance for each of the year-to-date, one-year and five-year periods ended April 30, 2017 was below the Morningstar Peer Group median. The Trustees noted for the one-year and three-year periods ended March 31, 2017, the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund had outperformed the Russell Mid Cap Growth Index. The Trustees further noted that for the quarter, five-year and since inception periods ended March 31, 2017, the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund had underperformed the Russell Mid Cap Growth Index. The Trustees also noted the Fund's performance for the year-to-date, one-year, three-year, five-year and since inception periods ended March 31, 2017 was generally in alignment with the performance of a composite of other separately-managed accounts of the Adviser's parent company that were similar to the Fund in terms of investment strategy and the Adviser attributed any underperformance to the underlying fee structures.

The Trustees noted for each of the year-to-date, one-year, three-year and five-year periods ended April 30, 2017, the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund's performance was below the Morningstar Peer Group median. The Trustees further noted that for the quarter, one-year, three-year, five-year and since inception periods ended March 31, 2017, the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund had underperformed the S&P 500 Index. The Trustees also noted the Fund's performance for the year-to-date, one-year, three-year, five-year and since inception periods ended March 31, 2017 was generally in alignment with the performance of a composite of other separately-managed accounts of the Adviser's parent company that were similar to the Fund in terms of investment strategy and the Adviser attributed any underperformance to the underlying fee structures.

After considering all of the information, the Trustees concluded that the performance obtained by the Adviser for the Funds was satisfactory under current market conditions. Although past performance is not a guarantee or indication of future results, the Trustees determined that the Funds and their shareholders were likely to benefit from the Adviser's continued management.

3. COSTS OF SERVICES PROVIDED AND PROFITS REALIZED BY THE ADVISER

The Trustees considered the cost of services and the structure of the Adviser's fees, including a review of the expense analyses and other pertinent material with respect to the Funds. The Trustees reviewed the related statistical information and other materials provided, including the comparative expenses, expense components and peer group selections. The Trustees considered the cost structure of each Fund relative to its Morningstar Peer Group and the separately-managed accounts of the Adviser's parent company, as well as the fee waivers and expense reimbursements of the Adviser.

The Trustees also considered the overall profitability of the Adviser, reviewing the Adviser's financial information and noting that the Adviser had provided subsidies for the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund's operations but had recently recouped those subsidies in their entirety. The Trustees also examined the level of profits that could be expected to accrue to the Adviser from the fees payable under the Agreement, as well as the Funds' brokerage commissions and use of soft dollars by the Adviser. These considerations were based on materials requested by the Trustees and the Funds' administrator specifically for the June 14, 2017 meeting and the August 18, 2017 meeting at which the Advisory Agreement was formally considered, as well as the presentations made by the Adviser over the course of the year.

Bright Rock Funds

Basis for Trustees' Approval of Investment Advisory Agreement (Continued) (Unaudited)

The Trustees noted that the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund's contractual management fee of 0.75% was equal to the Morningstar Peer Group average of 0.75%. The Trustees noted that the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund was operating below its expense cap of 1.25% for Institutional Class shares. The Trustees observed that the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund's total expense ratio (net of fee waivers and expense reimbursements) of 1.20% for Institutional Class shares fell above the Morningstar Peer Group average (which excludes Rule 12b-1 fees) of 1.05%. The Trustees then compared the fees paid by the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund to the fees paid by separately-managed accounts of the Adviser's parent company that are managed by the same portfolio management team as the Fund.

The Trustees noted that the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund's contractual management fee of 0.65% was below the Morningstar Peer Group average of 0.68%. The Trustees noted that the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund was operating below its expense cap of 1.25% for Institutional Class shares. The Trustees observed that the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund's total expense ratio of 0.88% for Institutional Class shares was above the Morningstar Peer Group average (which excludes Rule 12b-1 fees) of 0.83%. The Trustees then compared the fees paid by the Bright Rock Quality Large Cap Fund to the fees paid by separately-managed accounts of the Adviser's parent company that are managed by the same portfolio management team as the Fund.

The Trustees concluded that the Funds' expenses and the management fees paid to the Adviser were fair and reasonable in light of the comparative performance, expense and management fee information. The Trustees noted, based on a profitability analysis prepared by the Adviser, that the Adviser was not realizing profits in connection with its management of the Funds, after rebating fees to its parent company and reflecting marketing and distribution expenses, and the Trustees further concluded that the Adviser maintained adequate profit levels to support the services to the Funds from the revenues of its overall investment advisory business.

4. EXTENT OF ECONOMIES OF SCALE AS THE FUNDS GROW

The Trustees compared each Fund's expenses relative to its peer group and discussed realized and potential economies of scale. The Trustees also reviewed the structure of each Fund's management fee and whether each Fund was large enough to generate economies of scale for shareholders or whether economies of scale would be expected to be realized as Fund assets grow (and if so, how those economies of scale were being or would be shared with shareholders). The Trustees reviewed all fee waivers, expense reimbursements and recoupments by the Adviser with respect to the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund. The Trustees noted that the Funds' management fee structure did not contain any breakpoint reductions as the Funds' assets grow in size, but that the feasibility of incorporating breakpoints would continue to be reviewed on a regular basis.

Bright Rock Funds

Basis for Trustees' Approval of Investment Advisory Agreement (Continued) (Unaudited)

With respect to the Adviser's fee structure and any applicable expense waivers, the Trustees concluded that the current fee structure was reasonable and reflected a sharing of economies of scale between the Adviser and the Funds at the Funds' current asset levels.

5. BENEFITS DERIVED FROM THE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE FUNDS

The Trustees considered the direct and indirect benefits that could be received by the Adviser from its association with the Funds. The Trustees examined the brokerage and commissions of the Adviser with respect to the Funds. The Trustees concluded that the benefits the Adviser may receive, such as greater name recognition and increased ability to obtain research or brokerage services, appear to be reasonable, and in many cases may benefit the Funds.

CONCLUSIONS

The Trustees considered all of the foregoing factors. In considering the renewal of the Advisory Agreement, the Trustees did not identify any one factor as all-important, but rather considered these factors collectively in light of each Fund's surrounding circumstances. Based on this review, the Trustees, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, approved the continuation of the Advisory Agreement for an additional term ending August 31, 2018 as being in the best interests of each Fund and its shareholders.
