

PRESS RELEASE TEXT

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL CATEGORY KINGS

July 5, 2016

The Class I Shares of the Bright Rock Mid Cap Growth Fund (the "Fund") was recognized as a "Category King" for the one year period ended June 30, 2016 based on Lipper Data. The Fund was recognized in the July 5, 2016 edition of *The Wall Street Journal*¹ "Category Kings" as the #1 ranked Fund of the top 10 "Category Kings"—out of #400 funds—in Lipper, Inc.'s "mid cap growth" universe. The Category King award recognizes the top 10 funds of each category for one year total returns. You can see more by clicking here.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance of the fund may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month-end may be obtained by calling 1.866.273.7223.

Lipper Analytical Services, Inc. is an independent mutual fund research and rating service. Each Lipper average represents a universe of Funds with similar investment objectives. Rankings for the periods shown are based on Fund total returns with dividends and distributions reinvested and do not reflect sales charges.

Please carefully consider the Fund's investment objective, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. This and other information is contained in the Fund's prospectus, which you may obtain by calling +1 866 273 7223. Read it carefully before you invest or send money.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Investments in foreign securities can exhibit greater volatility and additional risks include political, economic, and currency risks as well as differences in accounting methods. These risks can be greater for investments in emerging markets. ETF investments involve additional risks such as the market price trading at a discount to its net asset value, an active secondary trading market may not develop or be maintained or trading may be halted by the exchange in which they trade, which may impact the fund's ability to sell its shares. Derivatives, such as options and futures, involve risks different, and in certain cases, greater than the risks presented by more traditional investments. Short selling of securities may result in the Fund's investment performance suffering if it is required to close out a short position earlier than it had intended. Growth stocks may be more sensitive to changes in current or expected earnings than the prices of other stocks. Value stocks may perform differently from the market as a whole and may continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. The fund may also use options and future contracts, which have the risks of unlimited losses of the underlying holdings due to unanticipated market movements and failure to correctly predict the direction of securities prices, interest rates and currency exchange rates. The investment in options is not suitable for all investors. Medium-capitalization companies tend to have limited liquidity and greater price volatility than large-capitalization companies.
